Sugar Is a Favorite, Gaining 6 1-2 Per Cent. on the Week-Indianapolis Grain Market Dull.

At New York, Saturday, money on call was easy at 1 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 2%@5 per cent. Sterling exchange was firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.881/201.88% for demand and at $4.87@4.87% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.88@4.88%; commercial bills, $4.86\4@4.86\6.

Silver certificates, 64c. Bar silver closed at 63%c per ounce; at London, 29d. The New York weekly bank statement

Circulation, decrease..... 513,500 The banks now hold $83,417,950 in excess of the requirements of the 25-per-cent, rule. Total sales of stocks Saturday amounted to only 78,841 shares. There seems to be, a growing belief among the speculative fraternity that the trusts are to be treated tenderly by the tariff makers, and, consequently, the industrials are at present the favorite group of stocks of the traders for a rise. It is confidently asserted that refined sugar is to be fully protected, that the bonded period is to be fixed to suit the dis-tillers and that the duty on lead is to be increased 1/2c per lb. The trading on the Stock Exchange was mainly in Sugar, Lead, Distilling and Chicago Gas, with only small trading in the railway list, chiefly in St. Paul, Burlington & Quincy and Reading. Sugar monopolized almost onehalf of the transactions, and was in good buying demand, making an advance of 31/2 per cent., to 104%, and closing within 1/4 per cent. of the highest price touched. The preferred stock made a gain of 1/4 per tent. Lead rose 1/4 for the common and 21/2 for the preferred, closing at the top figura. Distilling fluctuated between 25 and 25%, the last sale being at 25%. Chicago Gas rose ½ per cent., the last being the best price of the day. American Tobacco recorded an improvement of 1% per cent, on the day, and Gas lost 1 per cent. The trading in the railway list was dull and uninteresting, the only changes on the day's transactions in excess of a fraction being declines of 1 per cent, in New Jersey Central and Louisville & New Albany, St. Paul was sold in small lots by London houses, receding 34 and recovering 14. The market was in better tone in the late dealings than early in the day, and closed fairly strong. The result of the week's trading has been in the main depreciation in values. A notable exception, however, is Sugar, the common stock having made a gain of 61/2 per cent. and the preferred 3 per cent. Interior Conduit has advanced 7%. Alton & Terre Haute 7 and American District Telegraph 2 per cent. The more important declines are 1% per cent. in St. Paul, 11/8 in Rock Island, Burlington & Quincy, 1½ General ectric, 1% Louisville & Nashville, 2 Louisville, & New Albany, 2% Union Pacific, 314 National Starch preferred, 1/4 Dela-ware, Lackawanna & Western, 41/4 Chicago Gas and 41/2 American Express.

Rubber preferred 1 per cent. Consolidated and closed easier in tone. Louisville New Albany firsts and Erie each gained 2 per cent.; Kansas Pacific consols, 1%; Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf firsts, 1½. Government bonds were firm. State bonds

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW. Henry Clews, in reviewing the operations of Wall street last week, says:

"Wall street is still brooding cautiously over a situation beset with uncertainty of one kind or another. The crops, the tariff, the currency, the spectre of financial sectionalism, the significance of the new tramp element in politics, the wide prevalence of strikes and the new peace element in Europe, with its probable effects upon international investments-all these matters, important in themselves, and some of them fraught with significant possibilities, are felt to demand attention, and yet for the moment they are in a condition of suspense. Perhaps there is nothing in any of them that conveys any distinct menace, but the fact that changes are impending in so many matters which may more or less influence the future of investment is calculated to hold business in suspense. Transactions are therefore of a fragmentary character, and there are no symptoms of any large concerted movements calculated to materially affect values. Holders of the floating supplies of securities, however, see nothing to disturb their confidence, and raiders find nothing to encourage attacks, but are wary in their tactics.

"On one point there is a very general agreement-that within two to four months the principal of these uncertainties will have been settled, and the expectation is very general that the results will contribute to a material recovery of confidence and a large revival of business. The probabilities of the moment point to the enactment of the tariff bill, but in a form more lenient towards manufacturers than was proposed in the measure as it was passed by the House of Representatives. Those ameliorations have a tendency to encourage confidence. The rates of duty, however, are perhaps less important to the major part of our industries than the rates of wages. Upon | a wide range of important products the present duties go beyond the strict requirements of protection, and the new duties will shiftice to keep out the foreign goods. This is a rule of wide application, but more than this is most probably needed. There has been a general reduction in the prices of the foreign goods with which our manufactures have to compete, and to meet that change it may be found necessary that there be a reduction in the rate of wages. That is the one condition upon which a successful resumption of active business is more or less dependent. The general demand in the manufacturing and mining industries for lower wages thus becomes a matter of the first importance to the revival for which all interests are hoping. So far, the trades unions are offering stubborn resistance, upon a broad scale, to this demand, and it does not seem impossible that the struggle may be prolonged. That labor will have to yield in the end there can be no doubt, for manufacturers are now in no position to continue doing business at a loss and will prefer stopping their works to taking that course. It thus becomes a question whether, following the tariff uncertainties, we are to have a labor conflict. Upon that hangs

the further question-when may we hope to see our industries restored to a basis of reasonably active prosperity? Could the doubts on that point be removed there would be a solid basis of confidence in the ployment for labor and capital. For our part, notwithstanding the present unyielding attitude of labor, we incline to the opinion that a rational public opinion will bring about a second thought among the unions that will bring them to soon accept the inevitable. There is no other possible event that could so greatly conduce to a quick revival of business. Whilst probably most manufacturers might defer the resumption of work until the tariff bill was finally enacted, yet no one familiar with the present anxiety to employ immense accumulations of idle capital will have any doubt that, under such circumstances, ways would be found for starting up a vast amount of nonmanufacturing enterprise. The building trade would revive under the inducements of cheaper costs of materials and work. The last four years of nominal railroad construction has created epportunities for the building of new roads, and the needful capital is only waiting for the opportunity that lower wages would afford. But low rates of interest will not force investment into these sources without terms of labor that will insure costs of construction proportioned to the lower basis of prices that has come apparently to stay. We are therefore upon the verge of a possibility, and we may hope a probability, in the labor market that will suddenly change the whole aspect of business and introduce a return to comparative prosperity.

"The remarkable bids for the Paris loan, amounting to one hundred times the sum of bonds offered, and the offers for the German loan to three times the amount sought. are striking evidences of the extraordinary surplus of funds in Europe seeking employment. This is not without significance to our own investments. When the questions now pending in Congress have been disposed of the uncertainties which now temporarily check the European demand for our issues will disappear, and New York will be benefited by the investment demand of London. Paris and Berlin.'

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE. Best Week's Trade of the Year In

Some Lines. As has been anticipated, a week of summerlike weather gave new stimulus to trade. By this it need not be inferred that the volume of business of last year was reached, as in most lines April will drop considerably behind last year. The steady tone to prices is a noticeable feature. In staple groceries not a change of importance has been made in two months. Sugars have varied 1-16c in that time. Coffees are unchanged. Better demand for canned goods improved prices a little. Dry goods houses had a busy week. They are carrying large stocks, and to sell good bills do not show an unwillingness to make concessions. On Commission row, take the week through, the volume of trade was very satisfactory. On Friday business was slow. Vegetables of all kinds have sold well. Poultry and egg markets were in better shape at the close of the week than on Monday. Provisions are active and there is a possibility of an advance in prices. The bond market was generally heavy, The wool market is beginning to attract some attention. Dealers say prices for wool will be low and disappointing to wool grow-

OMINOUS DULL SPELL

Chicago Speculators Waiting for Something to Drop.

Wheat Goes Off a Fraction, Corn and Oats Dull and Provisions All Show a Decline.

CHICAGO, April 28.-Speculation was in a waiting mood to-day in the wheat market. Compared with closing prices of the day before there was 1/4c decline. Corn was limp, and lost 1/2c of its previous values. Provisions could not stand the amount | in the absence of business. Car lots at 39c of short selling done and closed lower.

The trading in May wheat was relegated to a secondary position, such business as was done in it being confined entirely to buying in or selling out of previous contracts. The market was without feature. and the fluctuations were limited to 4c in both May and July. Dullness was again coupled with weakness in the corn pit. The most favorable weather conditions prevailing, together with prospect of increasing medium, 14@16c. Dressed poultry steady receipts, caused the weakness. Scarcity of new business and the declination of traders accounted for the duliness. The lowest point of the day prevailed at the close. The weakness in other markets influenced oats to some extent. Hess took quite a fair amount of May, as well as July. Bids for the latter month were free during most of the session and comparatively steady feeling existed, showing a net decline of only %c at the close, while the other deliveries were from 1/8c to 1/4@1/8c off.

Provisions were again weak on fear of labor troubles. Compared with yesterday's closing quotations losses are shown of from 121/2c to 15c in pork, .05c in lard and from .10c to .121/2c in ribs. Estimated receipts for Monday are:

Wheat, 112 cars; corn, 450 cars; oats, 350 cars; hogs, 24,000. Business with the lake lines was fair. An advance of 1/2c was paid for two small loads of wheat, the line boats getting 1%c to 2c for Buffalo. The close was at 11/2/01% for wheat and 11/2c for corn. Leading futures ranged as fol-

MINNEAPOLIS, April 28.—May wheat lower to-day, as well as cash wheat and also April, with July and September closing the same as yesterday. The cause of the decline of the near futures seemed to be that there is some uncertainty as to the effect that May deliveries may have upon the cash wheat markets and upon the near futures, as the premium for the latter has been too high to compare with most other years. The Agriculturist. There is no part of the process involved in making an extra quality of butter that is of equal importance with properly workbe taken out of it and the salt put into it are matters of necessity, and the man who can invent some cheap method by which this can be done without working the butter will be the dairyman's benefactor. To make fine butter we must retain the grain in it, while all working, much or little, tends to destroy this grain. The modern plan of working butter is to do away with working it as much as possible and do that little as lightly as can be, and at the same time expel all the milk and water and introduce the salt. To do this stop the churn when the butter granules are very fine, draw the buttermilk and introduce water at a temperature near fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit, which hardens the butter, and when the water runs clear introduce the salt, mixing it well with the hard granules of butter in the churn. Then remove the butter to a table and press into shape for market. This will need no second working to remove the mottled appearance. Do not expect to succeed perfectly with the first trial, but a little experience will soon teach how to overcome the difficulties. It is well until more skill is attained by practice. RAILWAY TIME-TABLES. Indianapolis Union Station. ennsylvania Lines.
